

ESG Ratings & Indices

The A1 Telekom Austria Group has its sustainable activities assessed annually by rating agencies and is listed in the most important sustainability indices. The results confirm that the Group is on the right track to take on a pioneering sustainability role in the information and communications technologies sector.

Ratings

The A1 Telekom Austria Group has been participating in the CDP assessment since 2010. Through sustainable management and targeted measures, the A1 Telekom Austria Group achieved a Disclosure Performance Score of B in 2021. CDP

Sustainalytics, a Morningstar Company, is a leading independent global ESG and corporate governance rating agency. The A1 Telekom Austria Group has its performance evaluated by the agency every year. In 2021, the A1 Telekom Austria Group retained its position of Medium Risk. Sustainalytics

The A1 Telekom Austria Group retained the Prime Status for its corporate responsibility performance, with the current rating C+. ISS ESG

The Vigeo Eiris ESG rating integrates sustainability criteria in corporate strategy, risk management and business operations. The A1 Telekom Austria Group's ESG performance in this rating improved in 2021. Our ratings were observed as Robust and above the sector average in all three ESG pillars. Vigeo Eiris

Indices

The Telekom Austria share has been listed in the FTSE4Good index series since 2001. The index includes companies that demonstrate convincing ESG practices. FTSE4Good

The A1 Telekom Austria Group was included in the Austrian sustainability index VÖNIX in 2005. The index includes listed Austrian companies that are leaders in social and environmental performance. VÖNIX