

ESG Ratings & Indices

The A1 Group has its sustainable activities assessed annually by rating agencies and is listed in the most important sustainability indices. The results confirm that the Group is on the right track to take on a pioneering sustainability role in the information and communications technologies sector.

Ratings

The A1 Group has been participating in the CDP assessment since 2010. In 2022, the A1 Group is part of the CDP Climate A List for the first time, acknowledged for our corporate transparency and action on climate change. CDP

Sustainalytics, a Morningstar company, is a leading independent global ESG and corporate governance rating agency. The A1 Group has its performance evaluated by the agency every year. In 2022, the A1 Group rating improved. With a score of 15.2, the A1 Group is ranked as Low Risk. Sustainalytics

The A1 Group has retained the Prime Status for corporate responsibility performance and has received a B- rating.

ISS ESG

The Vigeo Eiris ESG rating focuses on the integration of sustainability criteria in corporate strategy, risk management, and business operations. The A1 Group's ESG performance in this rating improved in 2021¹. The performance of the A1 Group is above the sector average in all three ESG pillars. Vigeo Eiris

In 2022, the A1 Group participated in the EcoVadis Sustainability Rating for the first time and was awarded the silver medal. The EcoVadis rating covers a broad range of non-financial indicators in Environmental, Labor & Human Rights, Ethics, and Sustainable Procurement. EcoVadis

¹ The A1 Group was not ranked in 2022 by V.E. Moody's

Juni, 2023

Indices

FTSE4Good

The A1 Group share has been listed in the FTSE4Good index series since 2001. The index includes companies that demonstrate convincing ESG practices. FTSE4Good

The A1 Group was included in the Austrian sustainability index VÖNIX since 2005. The index includes listed Austrian companies that are leaders in social and environmental performance. VÖNIX

¹ The A1 Group was not ranked in 2022 by V.E. Moody's